The Old Year Was Good, But 1958 Looks Better

The year 1957 wasn't at all bad, but 1958 will be more abundant, according to hindsight and prognostications of a banker, politician and a Chamber of Commerce executive.

Mayor Joseph Verducci sees a "great" year, but also a great deal of difficulty balancing the budget for 1958-59, with the needs of a booming population outdistancing new tax revenue.

The mayor termed Daly City's chief accomplishment in 1957 as the establishment of a capital outlay fund for future city development. The fund will be fattened with some $200,000 in reserves accumulated over the years. A newly-formed citizens steering committee will figure out the best way to spend the capital outlay "nest egg," with emphasis on a "civic center" site so local government, now spread over the city, can be centralized in one location.

May Buy In '58

Verducci says the actual planning of the city hall will be in advanced stages within six months, and that the site may be purchased in 1958. "We've got to buy the property now or there won't be any remaining land available," the mayor opines.

The mayor says the city came a long way in 1957, particularly in the administrative field. "We've been criticized a lot for going too fast, but I think we're just meeting the needs of a fast-growing population."

The 1600-home McKeon development, St. Francis Heights, already on the drawing board in 1957, should do a lot for Daly City in 1958, says the mayor. Continuation of the Westlake development, plus a $5½ million apartment project by Caesar-Callan company and the McKeon project, which also includes considerable commercial development, should keep building activity bristling, if money isn't too tough to come by.

Banker Optomistic

On this score, Louis Pisani, manager.. of.. the.. Daly.. City branch of the Bank of America, is cautiously optimistic.

"Personally," he said, "I see a great improvement in the money market for 1958. I think that within six months this improvement will be markedly shown all around."

In the Daly City area, savings deposits climbed slowly, but steadily over 1956, signifying a healthy economy, Pisani explained.

Real estate loans, at the stiff rate of six per cent interest (4½% for G. I., 5½% for FHA), had a damper effect on the home building activity, although Daly City's total rallied to near record totals in 1957.

"Loans have been somewhat stymied because of tight money and the higher interest rates," Pisani said. "We haven't been as liberal with loans as we have in the past few years. No bank has."

Foreclosures, always a sign of a weakening economy, were almost nil locally, Pisani added.

Relax Financing

Pisani bases his rosy prediction for 1958 on the assumption that the federal government will relax its tight restrictions on building and financing.

Interest rate on savings, which jumped from 2 to 3 per cent in 1957, will probably stay the same, as will interest on loans.

Peter Markovich, businessman and executive secretary of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, sees 1958 as a big year for population growth in Daly City and another steady increase in volume of sales.

He foresees a population of 35,000 for 1958.

No figures are available for the Mission street business sector, but Markovich estimates sales dropped about 12 per cent in this area.

Losses here were not enough to offset the sizeable gain in sales in the Westlake Shopping Center, which were up from 10 to 15 per cent over the 1956 figure, which was estimated at "more than $15 million."

The C of C executive figured total sales for Daly City rose by $1½ million in 1957.

"Wherever there's available parking, business continues to hold its own or grow," Markovich observed.

The average family income for 1957 was $5100, up between $50 and $100 from 1952, Markovich estimated.

Reject Sales Tax

Markovich termed the Chamber's greatest accomplishment in 1957 as its part in defeating the proposed one-cent sales tax. The Chamber took the stand that the extra levy would discourage business that now comes to Daly City to avoid the special tax. Markovich predicted, however, that with dwindling sources of city revenue and increasing costs, the sales tax issue would be rekindled again.

For a capsule summation, Markovich says "1958 looks good, but I think things will really start to improve in 1959."

The year 1958 should be an important one politically, with a municipal and county election on the horizon for April and June, respectively.

Three councilmen's terms expire in April—Sanford Vickers, Micheal De Bernardi and Del Wilson. The city manager form of government, with accompanying increase in administrative personnel, is expected to be a major issue in the coming local election.

Some observers feel that few decisions of controversial nature will be made by the council before April, with the incumbents anxious to make as many friends as possible in the next few months.

The Town Record

By Monte Dayton

Santa Claus was not the only visitor at the JAMES WALTON home, 108 Knowles, on Christmas day.

Also arriving with the old gent were a case of measles and chicken pox, the recipients being ALICE WALTON, 6, and JOHNNY WALTON, 9, respectively.

The youngsters unwrapped their presents in bed.

But two of their "gifts" definitely weren't on their list.

Parking meter repairman SHELBY ROSS is having fits these days, what with the mass destruction of the penny parking machines.

Several dozen of the meters have been smashed in the past few weeks, and Ross figures it's not all the doing of youngsters.

Some of the meter smashing jobs are so thorough he figures they must have taken adult force.

ALEX SCHIESSL, Daly City poundmaster, is nursing a broken finger. He received the injury while trying to corral an obstreperous mutt who ran away from home.

Supervisor THOMAS CALLAN claims that efforts of some grand jurors to have supervisorial districts changed is merely a bit of gerrymandering to re-arrange the districts so the jurors have the best chance at the next election. Callan referred to JAMES FITZGERALD of San Bruno and ARTHUR BODIEN of Daly City, both members of the grand jury. Bodien claims, however, that he is definitely not a candidate.

The tight money situation was reflected in the noticeable shortage of outdoor Christmas displays in Westlake this year. Judges noted that fewer homeowners participated in the decorations contest.

One of the better outdoor displays in the older section of the city was that put together by ROBERT E. SPITZER, 125 E. Vista.

He fabricated 12 choir boys of plywood, each four feet tall and two feet wide.

While Spitzer was showing his Christmas spirit in a most laudable manner, some vandals showed their yuletide manners by stealing one of the choir boys just before Christmas.

School Unification Study Ordered By County Group

A formal study on the proposed unification of five northern San Mateo county school districts was approved unanimously Friday by the San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization.

Purpose of the study will be to determine whether Jefferson, Laguna Salada, Bayshore and Brisbane elementary districts and Jefferson High School district should be merged into a single unit.

Although the unification study drew numerous protests from school trustees and administrators at a public hearing here December 6, the county committee unanimously favored the investigation. As one member of the county group expressed it, "If so many school board members are so violently opposed to a unification study, maybe we better look into this."

Start By August

The study will be launched as soon as a current unification study in Pescadero is completed, or by August, whichever is sooner.

First step will be the formation of an augmented county committee—making every trustee in the districts to be affected a member of the county study group.

The augmented committee will hold at least three public hearings while the study is in process and will also hold numerous meetings somewhere in the north county.

The study, which will determine what savings, if any, can be effected by a single district, will take approximately one and a half years.

If the committee recommends unification, it is then up to county supervisors to call a special election in the five districts to be unified. A simple majority is required to unify the five areas.

Can Change Boundaries

Mrs. Catherine Mullen, Jefferson elementary school board trustee and member of the county committee, said that the boundaries of the area to be unified is not limited to the Jefferson High School district. If the study shows that Pacifica should have its own single unified district, the committee would so recommend. The study will determine what geographical subdivisions could best be served by unification.

The Citizens Committee for Better Schools, a Daly City organization, was instrumental in bringing about the unification study, having petitioned the county committee for the December 6 public hearing.

Trustees of every district except Jefferson Elementary appeared to speak against the unification study at the December 6 hearing, as did many citizens, particularly from the Brisbane-Bayshore areas, who claimed they would be losing choice assessed valuation to other "poorer" communities.

Petition Favors

One group in Brisbane favors the study, however. A petition containing 115 Brisbane names

'Hospital Agent' Foiled By Alert Daly City Police

Daly City police Friday afternoon arrested a 24-year-old San Francisco man for falsely soliciting funds as an "agent" for Mt. Zion hospital.

Sgt. August Benassini and Officer John Coleman seized Paul D. Dickman, a magazine salesman, as the latter rang the doorbell at 73 Forest Grove drive in Westlake.

Dickman admitted he had posed as an agent for the hospital, asking San Francisco and Daly City residents to donate money to the hospital's pediatrics ward. Several "receipts" for these donations were found on Dickman.

Tip-off to Daly City police came from the assistant director of the hospital, after he received many calls from persons approached by the salesman.

Benassini said Dickman did have a solicitor's license for Daly City, presumably for magazine sales. Exact amount of money he "collected" under the Mt. Zion guise was not known.

Dickman was booked en route to San Francisco authorities for prosecution on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

SF Turns Down JESD Inquiry On Land Parcel

San Francisco officials have notified Jefferson Elementary school district that a portion of SF property between Lake Merced boulevard and the Olympic Club is not for sale.

The Daly City school district had inquired about the small parcel for possible purchase to build a district administrative headquarters.

The strip of land is owned by the San Francisco water department, but it is not in use at present.

NEW YEAR'S 'QUIET'

No DC Car Deaths In '57

Daly City put 1957 into the record books New Year's Eve as no traffic accidents or drunk driving arrests occurred here — giving the community another fatality-free mark for the year.

Sgt. Henry Sundermann, traffic inspector, believes two pre-holiday traffic checks, both roadblock affairs on Mission street, made drivers a little more safety conscious.

The second traffic check, held Monday evening from 8 to midnight in front of the War Memorial building, resulted in only 11 citations being issued. Approximately 1142 cars were observed, 808 of which were halted. No arrests were made.

Officers Richard Phillips and Richard DeLosa made the courteous checks with the aid of seven auxiliary policemen.

Sundermann this week is compiling a yearly report of traffic accidents and injuries in the city during 1957. Both categories, according to first reports, were on the increase last year. Full report will be published next week.

Daly City's four-year record of no pedestrian fatalities was marred in 1956 when two residents were killed in accidents.

TRUSTEES TO CONDEMN SCHENONE, TOZO LAND

The elementary school board started condemnation proceedings on two small strips of land Monday night during a special meeting which was mainly concerned with site developments.

Resolutions of necessity (authorizing the district attorney to prepare papers for abandonment of the land) were signed on the Schenone property (part of the proposed M. Pauline Brown site, St. Francis Heights subdivision) and the Tozo property (necessary for expansion of Jefferson school).

The board also approved purchase of two lots on Knowles avenue, estimated cost of $8,000, to convert into playground area for Woodrow Wilson school. The move includes purchase of the home at 123 Knowles.

In other action, trustees approved hiring of William Foard as new inspector at the under-construction Vista Mar school in Westlake. Foard already handles inspector duties at Benjamin Franklin school.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel, asked if Vista Mar and Vista Grande schools would be completed by the contract deadline of February 1, replied that he was doubtful about Vista Mar. He said architect Mario Ciampi expects the Vista Grande classrooms to be ready for students the latter part of January.

Adult Education Classes Re-open Monday For 1000

The adult evening division of the Jefferson Union High School district reopens its doors to approximately 1000 students at 7:15 p.m. Monday. All six campuses will be in operation. All classes with the exception of "learn to swim" and "driver education" will resume instruction on Monday.

Driver education classes are slated to start instruction on Monday, Jan. 13. Classes are organized every five weeks to include theory and testing in the classroom during the evening and practice behind the wheel. Evening sessions are held twice a week but with the availability of two 1958 model automobiles, behind the wheel instruction practice driving is given anytime during the day at the convenience of the student. Since class size is limited to the first forty to register and the next class will not be given until February, all interested are urged to phone their reservations at PL 5-1162 immediately. A $12 fee is charged for the course.

A short six week course in office machines will be offered if 18 or more people sign up. Included in the course will be instruction and practice on simple adding machines, circulators, stenciling, spirit and mimeographing machine techniques Classes will be held

. . . . He'll Stay Here

Three DC Cops Are Promoted To Sergeant

Three veteran Daly City policemen sewed on chevrons as new sergeants this Wednesday in promotions announced by Chief Roland Petrocchi.

Elevated were inspectors Bruno Conci and Henry Sundermann and officer John Walsh.

Sundermann, traffic inspector, joined the Daly City force in 1941. Walsh has been with the department here since 1947, Conci since 1951.

Seventeen officers took the examination for sergeant last month. Five failed to pass.

Decides He'll Stay After Council Poll

City Manager Howard Stites revealed today that he had considered resigning his post here for a higher paying job but had decided to remain in Daly City after receiving what amounted to a "vote of confidence" from the city council.

Stites reportedly had been ready to accept a manager position in another California town at a salary between $1000 and $2000 a year higher than that he now receives. His present salary is $14,690 a year.

It was rumored last week that Stites had accepted the other position and had so informed the council.

Stites said, however, that he had declined the new job after querying individual councilmen and learning that they "wanted me to stay here."

Mayor Joseph Verducci had little comment except to say that Stites would remain on the job. Asked if the council had given Stites a unanimous vote of confidence, the mayor said he did not know. "He probably polled three of four of the councilmen individually," the mayor speculated.

At least one councilman, Michael De Bernardi, said he had not been contacted by Stites. De Bernardi has been a constant foe of Stites' financial and administrative policies.

Stites, hired here in the

'Operation Santa Claus' Cheers 66 DC Families

Sixty-six local families, in which were 257 children, enjoyed a happy Christmas, thanks to the community-backed "Operation Santa Claus."

The less fortunate received holiday joy in the form of turkey baskets, toys, food, clothing and cash.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Chamberman Peter J. Markovich spearheaded the annual campaign, assisted by:

St. Vincent de Paul Society, Lions Club, Rotary Club, Colma-Vista Grande Auxiliary of the Eagles, American Legion Auxiliary No. 410, Daly City Municipal Employees Union, Westlake Improvement Association, Daly City Fire Department, Daly City Police Department, Telephone Employees of San Francisco, Marian Club, Westlake Catholic Men's Association, Holy Name Society of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, the United States Marine Corps, and the fourth grade students from Our Lady of Mercy school in Westlake.

Firemen at Lake Merced station assembled and repaired bicycles, tricycles and wagons, in addition to sorting hundreds of toys for distribution.

The OLM fourth graders did such a good job on their project—a giant turkey basket—that the work was voted the "most valuable" food contribution.

Those who helped to play "host" to Daly City's biggest Christmas party, through their donations, were:

George Glass, Spotlite Market; Elton and John McGraw, McGraw's Pharmacy; Dr. L. B. Mahan, Judge W. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kettler, Relish Bakery; Mike Jacobs, Kings Market; Henry Doelger, Thomas Tromborg, Ed Lane, Tony Parmisano, Paul Snapp, Judge Frank Blum, Attorney Thomas Gallen, George Smith, Mission Bell Motel; Mae Haaland, Frank Gigli, Arnold Panella, Vincent Nevolo, Francis Duffy, E. Byrne, Byrne Radio and TV; A. Milano, Daly City Lime and Cement Co.; Dominic D'Augusta, Westlake Maple Shop; Jim Cummins, Market Street Van and Storage; A. Sebastiani, Judge Thomas Bocci, M. Bertolucci, Hilltop Meat Market; W. Kennedy, Kennedy Electric; Vincent Merlo, James Donahue, Bert Lasswell.

Judge Louis Dematteis, Art Colvin, L. Poletti, W. Lagomarsino, Dr. C. Mudrick, George Kirchhubel, Pat Mahoney, Ruth Fjerem, Roy Thomson, Elias Wille, George Lombard, Catherine Ricci, Dr. L. J. was submitted to the committee, requesting that the study be approved. Appearing for the petitioners was Mrs. Laura Johnson, active and sometimes controversial figure in the Brisbane community.

In other action Friday, the county committee appointed William Croman, Laguna Salada school board chairman, to fill vacancy on the committee created by resignation of James Cooper. Ironically, Croman was among trustees opposing the unification study at the December 6 hearing.

The state and county superintendent's office will participate and contribute much of the data for the local unification study.

Three unification studies are currently underway in the county—at San Mateo, Sequoia and Pescadero districts. The Pescadero study was requested by the state, since it has questioned the district's application for state aid.

While each of the five north county school districts to be included in the forthcoming unification study will send five trustees to the augmented committee, each district will have only one vote on the county committee.

twice a week at the Jefferson Campus. Those interested should phone PL 5-1162.

Space is still open in many of the other classes, including the various shops, mechanical drawing and drafting classes, sewing, art, ceramics, and posture and exercise classes. All classes with the exception of those in Americanization can be counted for credit towards a high school diploma. However, no registrations will be taken until February 1 in the following classes: United States history, civics, and oral English.

Tar Pot Explodes

An accumulation of gas in a tar pot resulted in an explosion and fire Tuesday morning on the site of Vista Mar school in Westlake.

The equipment, owned by Frazer-Ward & Co., was badly damaged but firemen arrived to douse flames before any structures were endangered. There were no injuries.

The fire cause a sudden blast which was heard throughout a large portion of Westlake.

spring of 1955, has had more than his share of foes because of his administrative policies. Stites, and/or the city manager form of government, is expected by most political pundits to be the big issue in the April, 1958 council election, at which time terms of three councilmen expire.

Stites has reportedly received three of four job offers in the past year but had not strongly considered any of them until the most recent proposal.

Husband Arrested After He Clobbers Wife With Hammer

A 20-year-old Daly City husban turned himself over to police Wednesday night after he admitted hitting his wife in the head with a claw hammer.

Arrested for investigation of assault with a deadly weapon was George W. Allen, a kitchen helper, who lives at 419 Bellevue avenue. Officers Jim Sunderland and Al Nicolini found the woman at home, bleeding from a scalp wound. She was released after treatment at Junipero Serra hospital.

At press time, Allen was still in jail, held in lieu of $500 bail.

SF State Invites Westlake Danseuse

DC Police Arrest 'Plastered Plasterer'

Anthony G. Terry, known as the "Plastered Plasterer of Half Moon Bay," was arrested here Friday night on a charge of drunkenness.

Sgt. Dave Hansen and Officer Charles Terry found the much-publicized Coastsider "in pretty wobbly shape" at the San Jose - Shakespeare intersection.

Terry, 76, was allowed to sober up, then released in the morning. He acquired his nickname during his battle with county officials over building specifications.

Following the disastrous 1906 earthquake, more than 900 aftershocks were registered in the San Francisco Bay region.

OBITUARIES

Frances Bichard

Last rites were held Tuesday for Frances Gardenier Bichard, 41, who died Sunday of burns suffered in a pre-Christmas fire at her home.

Mrs. Bichard was wife of Charles N. Bichard, proprietor of a Westlake pharmacy.

She was daughter of Richard and Teresa tum Suden, prominent Woodside socialites.

Officers said she had stayed up late wrapping Christmas gifts on December 19. Before dawn the next morning she rushed into the room where her husband was sleeping, her clothing on fire.

Her bed apparently caught fire when she fell asleep while smoking. She died at St. Luke's Hospital.

She is survived by her husband, her parents, a son, Anthony Crane Gardenier, and a brother, Joseph tum Suden.

Services were held in St. Luke's Episcopal church.

$1400 Burglary Of Watches At Westlake Store

Twenty-seven watches, valued at about $1400, were stolen by burglars from Westlake Jewelers, 329 South Mayfair, late Monday night or early Tuesday morning, according to police.

Owner Charles Maroosis, 35, said the burglars broke in by prying open the front display window. One of the culprits must have crawled into the store, officers believe, because the watches were on display some distance from where the break-in was made.

The thieves took only the more expensive watches, leaving several others untouched. They also overlooked $50 in the cash register.

The raid was the second theft in two days at the store located in the shopping center. Monday afternoon, two teenage boys walked off with a pair of $40 watches after telling saleslady Lina Papes they were "just looking around."

DC Garden Club Opens '58 With Membership Call

The Daly City Garden Club is conducting a membership drive during the months of January and February and invites the public to attend its next regular meeting, on January 7, 8 p.m., in the War Memorial building, Mission and Alp streets. Speaker will be Joseph Schultz, landscape architect, on the timely subject of pruning.

The club was organized November 8, 1949, by Mrs. D. M. Bunkley and is affiliated with the California Garden Club, Inc. Meetings are on the first Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m.

The club attempts to create and promote interest in amateur gardening, plant and bird life, and to further the appreciation of the natural beauties of the state of California; to encourage civic beautification and roadside development through the study of horticulture and landscape design; to assist in projects for conservation of natural resources; to organize and sponsor junior garden clubs, to aid and teach juniors these objects; to carry out wherever possible a program of garden therapy to aid the handicapped, the aged and the shut-ins; and always to maintain a harmonious understanding between the club and the community.

THE STUDY ON UNIFICATION

Friday night the San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization unanimously approved conducting a formal study on the proposed unification of five northern San Mateo County School districts.

In the face of seemingly overwhelming opposition to the study, voiced at a hearing here December 6, the county committee displayed integrity in its decision to hold the study.

It would have been easy enough for the committee to drop the whole matter after the December 6 hearing, claiming that the vox populi had spoken.

But the committee obviously saw what many others observed—that while many people had a lot to say against unification, the rank and file taxpayer was in a distinct minority.

School trustees and administrators were the most outspoken against unification, for reasons we cited earlier. One school district instead of five is going to mean a lot fewer administrative and elective jobs.

Those who spoke against a unification study may have genuinely believed that the study would serve no purpose.

We would like to know if there are any advantages to be found in unification and we commend the county committee for its decision in ordering this study.

If unification is out of the question, the study will so indicate. Each school district to be affected will be represented on the augmented study committee by five trustees and each district will have one vote on all committee recommendations.

Unification may not be the answer to the myriad school problems. But the school districts are not going to find the answers by burying their collective heads in the sand.

North Coast Lions Urge Westmoor Entries In Annual Speech Contest

Preliminary plans have been completed for the 21st annual "Student Speakers' Contest" sponsored by the Lions' Clubs of California and Nevada. Cornell H. Vander Meer, student speaker chairman of the North Coastside Lions Club, announces that Westmoor High school students are eligible to represent his club.

Miss Mary Holden, speech instructor at Westmoor, is signing up Westmoor students who will enter the competition for the $1500 winner's scholarship. Although sign-ups have already begun, there is yet time to enter since the North Coastside representative will not be chosen until February 28.

In this contest, as in the 20 which preceded it, all contestants will speak for not less than eight minutes nor more than ten minutes on the same subject. The topic for 1958 is "Community Service—A Way of Life." Topics are suggested by students who competed in past contests. The Lions committee feels the topic is one which will challenge the ingenuity of teenagers, and offers them a wealth of material in practical and philosophical thinking.

Although the final winner is the only one who will receive the annual $1500 scholarship, there are other awards—three $500 scholarships and four portable typewriters. Each club contestant, of which there will be three, and all finalists in club competition will receive trophies bearing their names engraved thereon.

Spring Semester Registration Begins Next Week At College Of San Mateo

College of San Mateo students return to classes next Monday, following the Christmas holiday recess. Returning students will have the opportunity to register for spring semester classes between January 6 and 22.

Prior to the Christmas holidays, students received the Spring Semester schedule of classes. Those wishing to register early secured and filed registration books with the Office of Admissions. They then made appointments with their counselors for conferences on program planning between January 6 and 22. Following conference with and approval by the counselor on the courses selected, each student must file his official study list and office study list with the registration clerk on or before January 22.

Registration is then complete and the student is ready to report to classes on February 4, first day of instruction in the spring semester.

New students and returning students not enrolled in the fall of 1957 will have the opportunity to register during the last week of January. Applicants will receive instruction by mail from the Office of Admissions. Required aptitude and English placement tests for entering students will be given on January 18 at the Delaware Campus at 8 a.m. and 1 p.m., respectively.

Registration for all students who have not registered early will be on February 3 at Coyote Point campus. Day classes begin on February 4. Extended Day classes begin on February 3.

ISSUE REMINDER THAT ALL ALIENS MUST REGISTER

Bruce G. Barber, District Director of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, announces that the period within which aliens must report their address is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, must report their address to the government during that period.

Barber said that forms with which to make the report will be available to all post offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January.

Barber urges all aliens to comply with the reporting requirements, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious consequences.

OPEN HOUSE

Salvation Army To Dedicate New Rehabilitation Center On Monday

On Monday, January 6, at 2:30 p.m., the Salvation Army Social Service Center officially dedicates and observes open house for the newly constructed Men's Residence, on Army street at San Jose avenue. Lt. Commissioner Samuel Hepburn, Western Territorial leader, will make the dedicatory address. Mayor George Christopher will bring greetings from the city of San Francisco.

The opening of this building will allow the Salvation Army to give around-the-clock care to men in need of rehabilitation in body, mind and spirit. This new facility is another substantial answer to the vital need for additional rehabilitation opportunities for the alcoholic, the parolee, the physically handicapped and socially disturbed man.

The building has housing accommodations for 115 men. The attractive surroundings include sleeping rooms, dining room, and a modern clinic, where every man is given a complete physical examination. There is also a large recreation room equipped with pool, snooker tables, shuffleboard and a snack bar. A library room, radio room and large TV room are also available. In the lovely chapel religious services are conducted twice a week and a morning devotions period is led daily by the chaplain.

The Salvation Army invites all to "come and see" what is being done toward the rehabilitation of the men who seek its services. This new facility meets a vital need and will serve men from all areas of California.

Phillips reported that Felleti, a Burlingame grocer, was at fault, failing to yield the right-of-way.

January Chosen 'March Of Dimes' Month In County

The San Mateo County board of supervisors has unanimously adopted a resolution proclaiming January, 1958, as "March of Dimes Month," honoring the 20th anniversary campaign of the polio funds effort begun in 1938, it was announced today.

T. J. Hallinan, veteran director of the annual drives in this county, in making the annoucement lauded the supervisors headed by Chairman Edward R. McDonald, for "taking this timely and historical action in proclaiming January as March of Dimes Month here in our county, for this fine cause."

The proclamation pointed out that the "twentieth anniversary March of Dimes in January, 1958, will provide the means by which polio patients may avail themselves of the newest medical treatment and rehabilitation techniques," as well as living up to the polio Foundation's traditional pledge to help "thousands of cruelly handicapped polio victims alive today" back to better health and in helping restore them "to a useful and productive life."

Hallinan emphasized that "half the money raised here is kept in our county to pay terrific costs of care for polio victims." He explained the other half sent to the Foundation national headquarters "also is used in sending money back to chapters needing it to continue to pay these huge bills for local polio victims, as always."

The 1958 drive officially begins this Thursday, continuing throughout January, he added.

Hadassah Meeting

Next board meeting of Westlake Group Hadassah will be held at noon on January 13 at the home of Mrs. F. K. Brann, 1270 28th avenue. All members are urged to attend since plans for the February 8 dance at Westlake auditorium will be the prime topic.

WINTER BEST TIME

State Urges 3 Million Folks To Start 3-Stage Polio Shots

State Department of Public Health today issued an appeal to some 3 million Californians under the age of 40 to seek protection against paralytic polio by getting vaccinations between now and the early summer start of the disease "season."

Since it requires eight months to take the recommended series of three inoculations—a month between the first two inoculations and seven months between the second and third—this winter is an ideal time for vaccination in order that the full series is completed by the time polio begins its usual mass strike against Californians in early June.

Incidence Down

The total incidence rate of polio in California is now lower than any year since 1944, and the incidence of paralytic polio is at the lowest level recorded since the reporting of paralytic status was initiated in 1948.

Vaccination against polio has been a significant factor in the low incidence this year. The greatest reduction in paralytic rates has occurred among school-age children in whom immunization levels are known to be highest. The reduction is somewhat less among preschool children who have not been reached as extensively by local vaccination programs. The reduction is least among young adults, of whom only a minority have received vaccine. This year, for the first time in California records, the paralytic incidence rate is lower among children aged 5-9 than among adults aged 20-29.

Approximately three-fourth of the paralytic cases this year occurred in patients who had received no vaccine prior to onset; 15 percent had received a partial series of inoculation, and less than 10 percent had had three inoculations. The 10 percent represents 15 cases, predominately with mild weakness, in which confirmation of diagnosis by laboratory study is still pending.

No Deaths

No deaths have occurred this season among vaccinated cases. This emphasizes, of course, the importance of receiving all three of the recommended inoculations for the highest degree of protection.

These evidences of vaccine effectiveness are in keeping with the 78-85 percent reduction in paralytic disease among vaccinated children observed in evaluation studies in 1955 and 1956. These children received three vaccine injections. The first two shots were spaced one month apart, with a seven-month gap between the second and third shots.

In reflecting the benefits of vaccination, the incidence data this year emphasize the need for further vaccination. Nearly 150 paralytic cases have already occurred since April 1 among persons who received no vaccine, and the number will likely reach 200 by the end of the "disease year" next March. (Since the upswing in polio cases starts in April and is lowest in March, the 12-month period used in tallying cases is April 1-March 31.)

Approximately one-third of these unvaccinated cases are children under the age of five, another third are adults and the remainder are school children who still have not been reached by the vaccination effort.

By July 1, after the local vaccination campaigns were for the most part concluded, estimates indicated that roughly 70 percent of the population aged 20-40, and 15 percent of the population under the age of 20 had not received any inoculations of Salk vaccine. Less than one-fourth of the vaccinated had completed the series of three inoculations.

90 Jehovahs From DC Eye SF Convention

H. E. Casperson, presiding minister of the Daly City congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced today over 90 ministers from the Daly City congregation plan to attend the semi-annual Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in San Francisco, January 10-12, at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium.

The convention highlight will be an address on Sunday, 3 p.m., by W. D. Couch, Watchtower Society Representative, on the subject, "What Are the Prospects For Lasting Peace?"

Commenting on the timely subject of the public talk, Casperson said: "A candidate for the governorship of California recently remarked that Armageddon is near. Also we find the newspapers suggesting events may be Armageddon but which in reality are a part of the sign showing that a spiritual battle is near. Jesus described great tribulation, world wars, with men's hearts failing them for fear. These very things are happening today. At Matthew 24:34 in the Bible it states that the very generation seeing these troubles beginning would see them end. World War I began these troubles. Since they came upon this generation, this generation will see them end. Revelation 16 says God will destroy all wickedness at Armageddon and righteous conditions on earth will follow forevermore. The world stands at Armageddon today, and those who believe the Bible will act upon this fact, taking the course leading to survival."

A cordial invitation to all Daly City residents to attend the Sunday public discourse at San Francisco's Civic Auditorium is extended by Casperson. The discourse marks the climax of a three day assembly beginning Friday, 6:45 p.m., with morning, afternoon and evening sessions, Saturday and Sunday. All assembly sessions are open to the public, and no collections are taken.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

Hollywood loves to hold its big releases until the end of the year, each studio feeling that its entry will crowd out all others. This isn't the time to present the arguments against this foolish situation, this is the time to come to the aid of the harried film follower, vainly trying to keep up with his "must see" list.

Already in a weakened state from far too many holiday goodies and potables, and confused by conflicting claims of greatness, he's tempted to quit and go home. Don't do that. Go to the Paramount and see "Sayonara." You won't be sorry.

Even though it is recommended by "Seventeen" magazine, the film is still very rewarding for the more discriminating viewer. Its scenes of different types of Japanese theater (although drastically cut) and its intimate little glimpses of day-to-day life of an average Japanese citizen give it distinction and charm.

Local Color

Filmed in Technicolor and in the widescreen process Technirama, "Sayonara" is a beautiful film. Every opportunity has been taken to use the natural backgrounds to fullest advantage — the Japanese gardens and temples, the simple life along the canal and the ceremonial life of those dedicated to the traditional theater. All this color, both local and photographic, helps one overlook that the movie is inclined to beat us over the head with its message of tolerance and love and Christian charity.

Starring Marlon Brando as a jet ace in love with Miiko Taka, a Japanese dancer who has renounced love and marriage, "Sayonara" deals sympathetically with the complications that make romance and marriage between two races so difficult a problem. There is also Red Buttons, an airman, and Miyoshi Umeki, who marry against Army orders with resultant tragedy. In addition, there is a hint of a third identical problem, involving Ricardo Montalban, a Kabuki dancer, and Patricia Owens, Brando's discarded fiancee. This is too much of a good thing.

Oriental Delicacy

Miyoshi Umeki is a sweet little thing and you're going to be astonished at Red Buttons' performance. Miiko Tako is a real beauty, costumed in the most exquisite taste, and playing her role with delicacy and restraint.

Brando is completely wrong for his role. Some ten years ago be played Stanley Kowalski in "Streetcar." His stage performance must have been a powerful experience, and on the screen he gave the impression that for some an unwashed, inarticulate, almost non-thinking male could have a certain brutish charm. But Marlon my boy, it's time to change your role. . . . You can't play Stanley forever. z

Presbyterians Plan Series On Japan Reconstruction

Recognizing the importance of Japan during its continuing reconstruction period will be the theme for a series of four programs to be sponsored by and held at the Broadmoor Presbyterian church.

The series, in line with the inter-denominational mission-study theme for 1958, is planned for the four Sunday evenings of January from 6 to 8 p.m.

In inviting all members and friends to the sessions, the Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, pastor, commented that the classes will point up the role we play as Christians in the lives of those of other countries and in understanding the situations in which Christians are placed in foreign lands.

Following a light snack supper, which is sponsored by the four circles of Broadmoor Presbyterian Women's association, the participants will separate into smaller groups for 45 minutes of study. Adult classes will be under the guidance of the Rev. Tweedie. Hal Holman will lead the high school group, Mrs. Floyd Hicks will teach the junior high and second junior group and Mrs. John Rued will have charge of the low juniors and primary pupils. Nursery care will be provided for smaller children.

From 7:15 until 8 p.m., the groups will merge and enjoy sound films, colored slides and lectures by widely-recognized authorities in the Japanese mission field.

The film, "Younger Brother," is to be shown at the initial session, January 5; and highlights of succeeding evenings will include appearance of Dr. and Mrs. David Bryn Jones, missionaries to Japan, and the post-war film "Kenji 'Comes Home." At the concluding meeting, January 26, Dr. and Mrs. William C. Kerr, who have also served as missionaries to Japan, will speak.

As chairman of the congregation, the chief responsibilities for the church's program will be shouldered by Roy Arneson, 202 88th street, Daly City. For the past three years he has held the office of elder and has been on the teaching staff of the Sunday school. TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

"ROCK 'N RALLY" . . . Television programs come and go, and many times their demise is of no great loss. We did not feel this was the case when KPIX's popular show for teenagers "Rock 'N Rally" recently disappeared from the TV lanes. We liked the show for a number of reasons. It was a local "live" program. Host Dick Crest was an extremely talented and personable master of ceremonies. Skillfully produced "Rock 'N Rally" gave a picture of teen-agers that we all know about, but rarely see emphasized—wholesome happy youngsters brimming with school spirit . . . proud of their schools, officers and athletes—a story we like to see told . . . and a story that television can tell so beautifully.

Feeling quite strongly that here was a program that we would like to see back on the air, we talked to KPIX's capable program director, Bill Dempsey, and asked about the possibilities of the show returning. He said he had news for us. With host Dick Crest and guest stars, the show will return to the air this Friday evening (Jan. 3) at 6:30 p.m. in a special telecast and kickoff to the March of Dimes. Although this program will be a one-time only telecast, he added that "Rock 'N Rally" will be back within the immediate future on a regular basis. Although plans are still in the formative stage, the program may be an hour show, once a week with a more elaborate production.

If the program is increased in length, we have an idea we would like to pass on to KPIX's program staff. Why not give recognition to other outstanding students as well as athletes and class officers? With the emphasis right now on science, it would be extremely timely to honor an outstanding science student, possibly demonstrating some experiment has has been working on, or honor leading students in other fields, such as journalism, art or drama.

NEW SHOWS . . . Last week marked the debut of a series of leading MGM films over KGO-TV which will be presented on the following schedule: "MGM Matinee" (1 p.m. daily), "MGM Presents" (10:30 p.m. daily) and "The Best of MGM" (7 p.m. Sat.—5 p.m. Sun.)

A new series featuring the distinguished American sculptor, Merrell Gage, recently premiered over KQED (Wed. 8 p.m. and Mon. 4 p.m.). Titled "Visits with a Sculptor," the program features Mr. Gage working in various media of sculpture, clay, wood and stone.

A special treat is in store for the entire family when "Shirley Temple's Storybook" premieres over NBC, KRON-TV on Sunday, Jan. 12. The program will dramatize 16 fairy tale classics and children's stories.

Title-Minded Jeff Cagers Eye Debut

Tribe In Lid-Lifter With Cap

By Roy Hurlbert

Jefferson's senior - studded Indian cagers dribble back into action Friday afternoon here next week, hosting Washington of San Francisco in the Daly City team's final practice game. First game begins at 3 o'clock.

Coach Mike Orlich's Indians, winners of 7 and losers 3 times to date, open their Peninsula League title guest on January 14 against co-favorite Capuchino, at the Cap gym. On Friday, January 17, Jeff meets Westmoor in a loop go at the Ram gym, an evening contest.

Orlich believes his varsity can go all the way in the PL race, though Capuchino is the popular pick to finish on top. Burlingame and Hillsdale also boast good potential.

Good Record

Biggest feather in Jeff's cap thus far was sweeping the Palo Alto Invitational tourney, easily disposing of three South Peninsula contenders in the process. Capuchino, on the other hand, had no sweat taking the pre-season Peninsula League tourney, an affair in which all teams met each other in abbreviated contests.

In their only holiday action, Orlich's Tribe last week dropped a tingling 51-47 decision to potent Poly High of San Francisco, which entered the game as the number one ranked team in Northern California. Jeff is still listed among the top 15 prep quints in this part of the state.

Senior guard Gary Ryan, the Brisbane rocket, fired Jeff's near upset effort against Poly, bagging 21 points. Center Dennis Marc, 6-5, who set the Palo Alto tourney ablaze with one 26-point game, rammed home 14 points against the Parrots. Guard Barry Haanen, another Brisbaner, plunked in 7.

All Seniors

Orlich's league-starting lineup (as of this week) is an all-senior crew. At forwards are Wayne Lewis (5-11) and Puzzy Firth (6-1), Marc is at the pivot, and Ryan (6-even) and Haanen (6-even) run at guards.

Four outstanding reserves who will work in and out of the lineup are Bob Berry (6-1), Ernie Howren (6-3), Pete Garcia (6-2) and Roy Reitz (6-even).

Reitz made the all-tourney team in the Peninsula League invitational, scoring 38 points in the tourney. Garcia, the fabulous football end, played center in the invitational, and handled the chore well.

Orlich sent his reserves in the Peninsula League tourney because much earlier in the year he had accepted an invitation for his varsity to compete in the Palo Alto tourney. The Jeff coach was roundly criticized, at first, for allegedly "deserting" the Peninsula League tourney. The critics cooled down when Orlich explained that the Palo Alto commitment was of long-standing.

MEZZERA'S JEFFERSON LIGHTWEIGHTS

$335 Burglary At Serra Store

A burglar late Friday night invaded the Saveway Store, 2123 Junipero Serra boulevard, and carted off a truck load of items valued at $335 by store owner A. G. Mangini.

The list of missing articles ranged from toys to electrical appliances. Strangely, the thief did not touch the cash register, and there were no signs of forced entry.

1957 IN REVIEW

Highlights Of Sports Year For Daly City's Top Athlete

Daly City's athletic sons earned their share of glory on the fields of friendly strife during 1957.

While the main focus competitively was on the high school athletes of Jefferson and Westmoor, the younger kids were treated to an expanded city-schools recreation program, smoothly guided by director Dee Van Nest.

The spotlight fell on many individuals around town. Mayor Joe Verducci, Northern California "Coach of the Year" was one. Another localite doing his bulky best was Bob St. Clair, of Westlake, the 49ers' all-pro tackle. On the prep front, Jeff's Larry Pottinger won "Player of the Year" in North PAL basketball.

Team-wise, Jefferson's varsity baseball squad, handled by mild-mannered Steve Mezzera, and Westmoor's Peninsula League champion cross country squad, tutored by ex-Marine Ernie Ribera, were the standouts.

Mezzera's Indians, led by tireless Eddie Leveroni, won South City Invitational and the PL title, then lost a close two-of-three playoff to the South Peninsula kingpin, Menlo-Atherton. Leveroni, catcher Bill Strassburger, and infielders Ino Patron and Barry Haanen were unanimous All-Peninsula choices.

In football, Senior Paul Tapia of Jeff grabbed state-wide headlines by leading ALL of Northern California in the touchdown throwing department. Paul rifled 21 scoring passes as the crippled Indians posted an unimpressive 3-5 season mark.

Coach Joe McGrath, in this writer's opinion, turned in the coaching job of the year. Injuries and lack of experienced linemen made the Jeff eleven a pass-catcher team—offensively. Tapia hurled as much as two quarterbacks, and his chief receivers, junior Pete Garcia and senior Gary Ryan, were the best in the league. Ryan awkwardly was left off the All-Peninsula first team, though he lead the loop in total catches, played the most games, and in general, did everything above par.

Pete Matisi at Westmoor, steering the varsity football Rams in their first try at league play, won only one ball game in seven starts. But his kids learned the lessons that will make them strong next time.

Bob Roller, in Matisi's opinion, was his best gridder. Bob played center, guard and halfback—and handled each position like a letterman. Although the Rams finished in the PL basement, scribes thought enough of Roller to list him on the All-League second team.

In cross country, Westmoor and Jefferson finished one-two for Peninsula League honors. Ribera's Rams showed their heels to all opponents, and Bob Watt's Indians were lucked out the last week of the campaign —by Westmoor, no less, in a thriller.

Sandlot baseball competition brought area-wide fame to two outstanding clubs, the Broadmoor Youth Association Midgets (best in the Bay Area), and the always-strong Daly City Drug nine.

Art Linhares, the DC policeman, and Wayne Giusti, Jeff High veteran, were the best (other than pro Kenny Venturi) in '57 golf competition.

Linhares made still another trip to the National Public Links tourney in Washington, and Giusti played in the National Junior tourney.

Game of the year, we think, was the municipal baseball clash (?) between the firemen and police. Elmer Kennedy's hosemen won out by the margin of two touchdowns, 18-6. Neither squad boasted a legitimate extra point kicker. But the tilt, was a riot, with all the trimmings.

War Memorial building hosted a mutitude of events, ranging from city rec league basketball to badminton classes for the fairer sex. The OLPH Men's Club twice filled the place with their nonesuch Golden Gloves boxing bouts.

In the collegiate ranks, Jeff graduates performed admirably. Worthy of mention were Jack Thur, Michigan State lineman; Jim Honeywell, sophmore fullback at Stanford and Tom Cloutier, end on the unbeaten Cal frosh football squad.

Professionally, pitcher Marino Pieretti, the old Coast Leaguer, continued in the managerial capacity in pro ball, and Don Mossi was effective as usual on the hill for the Cleveland Indians.

Last, and certainly most important, the Police Athletic League became a reality. The organization still needs more cash and community-support. It is the best of causes.

SKIN-DIVING SEA LIONS IN COAST OUTING

The Sea Lions of San Mateo County, a skin-diving club of young male adults, will invade Pedro Point on February 5 for spear-fishing and skin-diving competition.

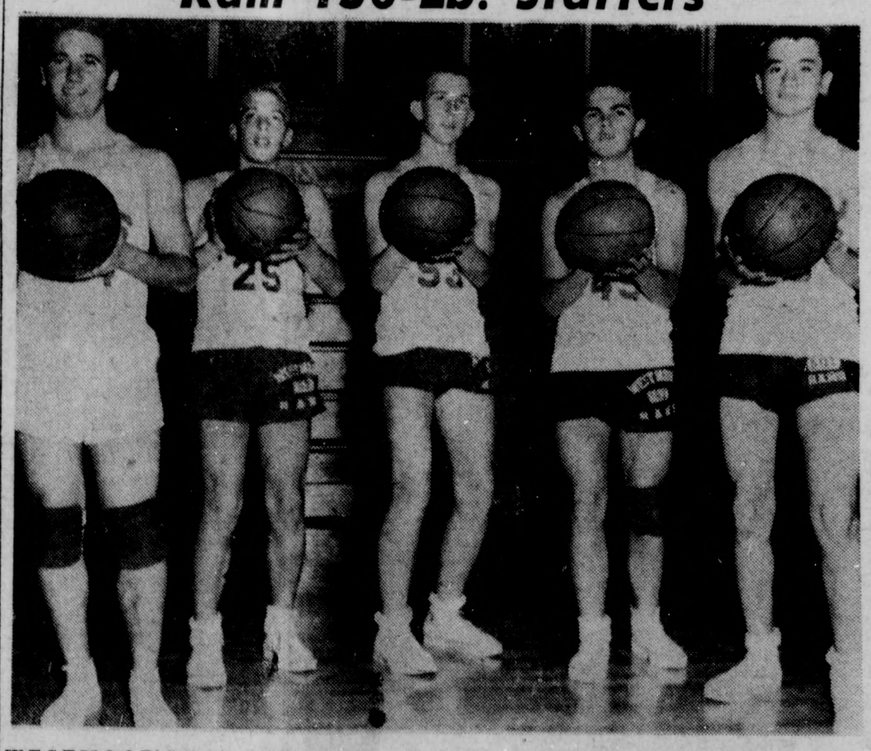

Ted Hansen, Daly Cityan in charge of the program, says the inter-club events will run from 10 o'clock in the morning to 1 p.m.

The club, with a membership of 25, was organized a year ago. Three of its divers recently aided sheriff's deputies in recovering an auto which plunged into the surf off Devil's Slide.

On March 1, the Sea Lions and their ladies will stage a dance at the Pedro Point Fireman's Hall, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Persons interested in the club should call its president, Richard Selmi, of the Coastside. He can be reached by calling FL 5-3451.

Ram 130-Lb. Starters

WESTMOOR'S lightweight basketball five (130-pounders) have their shooting eyes geared for a January 10 opener in the Peninsula League with South San Francisco. The starters (from left): Jim Heick, Webb Parker, Wayne Moon, Bob Goodwin and Andy Saranchock. Coach is Byron Van Alystyne, who performed as a collegian at USC.

Westmoor 5's Launch League Against SSF

Westmoor's varsity cagers conclude their practice schedule here next Tuesday afternoon when they play host to Half Moon Bay. Coach Tony Giammona's Rams travel to South City the following Friday (January 10) to open Peninsula League action against the Warriors.

The Ram fives split an exhibition pair to Lick-Wilmerding during the holidays, losing the varsity tilt, 62-44, but winning the 30's encounter, 33-16.

Forward Gary Twitty paced Westmoor in the varsity contest. He got 12 points, followed by center Larry Schoenfeldt's 9. Jim Heick was the lightweight game star with 14 points.

Giammona's varsity have a 1-4 practice record entering this Friday afternoon's home game with Tamalpais. Byron Van Alstyne's Ram 30's are 2-3.

The varsity starters for the Daly City team are Larry Harper and Twitty at forwards, Schoenfeldt at center, and guards Bill Doughterty and Ross Holmgren.

OLPH Cagers Open Rec League With Convincing Wins Over OLM Quints

Our Lady of Perpetual Help's seventh and eighth graders scored convincing wins as action began in the DC Rec Department's three intermediate basketball leagues.

The OLPH seventh graders opened with a 34-15 win over Our Lady of Mercy, with Ellis and Fair pumping home 12 and 9 points for the winners. Chris Trapini got 9 for OLM.

In the other seventh grade tangle, Dan Hermasillo bagged 18 points in leading Colma to a 43-2 rout of Westlake school. Frank Gallegos hit 11 points and F. Welch got 8 for the Colmans. George Ellis was Westlake's lone scorer, with a pair of free throws.

The OLPH eighth graders routed OLM, 66-4, as McKulik potted 19 points, Hennessy got 16, Irwin had 14, and Fenn accumulated 11. Wall and Fraher shared Mercy's point total.

In other eighth grade tilts, Olympia bounced Crocker, 30-17, and St. James won by forfeit over Colma.

Ben Franklin nipped Westlake school, 13-12, in a sixth grade thriller won in overtime by Ed Perry's free throw. Ron Johnson was high for the Falcons with 7 points. Westlake's Mark Mallinger had 8.

Lincoln park forfeited to Our Lady of Mercy's sixth graders.

League play resumes this Saturday morning, with the following games on the War Memorial courts:

6th Grade: 11:30 a.m., Ben Franklin vs. OLM, Lincoln vs. Westlake school.

7th Grade: 12:30, Colma vs. OLM, OLPH vs. War Memorial.

8th Grade: 1:30, Police Athletic League vs. St. James, Crocker vs. OLPH, and at 2:30, Colma vs. OLM.

PAL Goes Full Swing During '58

With some 90 kids already enrolled as members, directors of the Daly City Police Athletic League look to 1958 as the organization's first big year.

Already in progress are once-a-week boxing and basketball sessions. PAL John Coleman reports that the Monday night boxing classes at Jefferson High gym, from 7 to 9 o'clock, have attracted 60 youngsters, while the basketball practice at War Memorial building, Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m., have drawn an average of 70 small fry.

The PAL's treasury consists of only $650, "hardly enough to cover what we've planned in all sports," says Coleman. "We certainly welcome more donations to help buy uniforms and equipment for these activities."

Thus far, biggest donation from an individual is a $100 check from County Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr., of Colma. The police themselves donated en masse at Christmas-time.

The boxing tourney is tentatively planned in March at the Jefferson gym. Directors also hope to have two teams ready by this Saturday for competition in the city-sponsored seventh and eighth grade basketball leagues.

Only fee kids need to join the PAL is 10 cents for membership cards. Tee shirts, inscribed with the PAL insignia, have been ordered. And as more money is donated, uniforms should be available in all sports.

Thanks to Mike Orlich, the PAL has been granted use of the Jefferson pool on the night of January 25 for a "Father & Son" swimming outing.

The PAL bylaws are just about ready for final approval, and insurance coverage for the youngsters is being worked out through Peter J. Markovich.

Fathers who wish to enroll their sons in the PAL should immediately contact Coleman and/or other police officers at the station, 75 Wellington avenue, PL 5-0850.

Westmoor Gym Open 2 Nights For Public Use

Beginning next week, Westmoor high school's ultra modern gymnasium will be open to the public two nights a week, according to a schedule announced today by Tony Giammona, physical education director.

On Tuesdays, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., the gym will be open for basketball, badminton and volleyball—to persons of all ages. Thursday evenings (same hours) have been set aside for organized groups who wish to use the facilities.

Admission to the gym on these evenings is 10 cents for grammar school students and Westmoor pupils with student body cards, while all others must pay 25 cents.

The school furnishes towels, basketballs, volleyballs, and badminton rackets. Individuals using the gym are asked to bring gym suits, tennis shoes and shuttlecocks (for badminton).

Giammona advises gym-goers to leave all valuables (watches, rings, et cetera) at home, since no facilities are available for storing these items at the gym.

For additional information on use of the Westmoor gym, the number to call is PL 6-3434, and ask for Giammona.
